D<sup>5</sup>

Would be incredible to be like them, to be there in Your presence on that day and then to see You go to heaven on a cloud

C<sup>5</sup>

and then there's nothing to see.

D<sup>5</sup>

Burned by a fire in a room that's closed,
there's nothing here like ashes only words that flow.
The masses here who listen they can hear You

C<sup>5</sup>

but they don't want to see.

Chorus 1

(That) You're a wonderful saviour, wonderful life.

C<sup>2</sup>

G<sup>aug</sup>

Present in danger, with me in strife.

D

FM<sup>7</sup>

Am/C

C

Born as a child, but the king of the wind and the rolling sea.

D

F<sup>6</sup>

A wonderful saviour, counsel and friend.

C

G

Sometimes I don't listen and I'm just like them;

D

Dm/F

C<sup>aug</sup>

that's when the rocks cry out. For the sake of eternity.

D<sup>5</sup>

You came to get me.

D<sup>5</sup>

Try to live by stories but can't understand:
in a world dissolved in science You became a man.
I'm hounded by my questions

C<sup>5</sup>

and I wonder why it's so hard to see.

D

F<sup>6</sup>

(That) You're a wonderful saviour, wonderful life.

C<sup>2</sup>

G<sup>aug</sup>

Present in danger, with me in strife.
